

SUBJECT: Draft Minutes of 18 October USIB Meeting

1. Implications of Soviet Moves in Cuba

[redacted] distributed through special channels, USIB-M-238, Item 7)

The Chairman reported that, based on meetings he has had with certain of the principals of Board members, events have somewhat overtaken

[redacted] as drafted and therefore Board action on it was not now appropriate. As proposed by the Chairman, the Board reviewed and discussed developments with respect to Cuba and their implications.

2. Special USIB Meetings

The Chairman proposed, and the Board agreed, that a special meeting of USIB members, with one assistant each if desired, should be held every morning for the time being at 0830 in the Conference Room of East Building to review and discuss developments relating to the Cuban situation.
